

INVITATION TO JOIN IN
HARRY GEM TENNIS TOURNAMENT
FRIDAY 13 MAY 2011
1.00 - 5.00 pm
Edgbaston Priory Tennis Club

Birmingham Business Focus invites Mixed Doubles pairs to represent their company and play in this friendly and informal inter company tournament.

The Harry Gem Tournament, commemorates the origin of lawn tennis, which started in 1859 at Ampton Road, Edgbaston, where Solicitor Harry Gem and his friend Augurio Perera founded the game of lawn tennis.

Prizes are trophies and tickets for the AEGON Classic Tournament at Edgbaston Priory in June.

Entry fee is £25 per person inclusive of BBQ and a glass of wine.

It's going to be a fun afternoon, in a lovely setting, raising money for Birmingham Childrens Hospital.

Playing ability is not a criteria for entry, determination to have some fun is!
